Money raised supports DSUK

Disability Snowsport UK is the national charity for Disabled Snowsport in the UK.

We believe skiers and snowboarders with a disability should be able to ski alongside the able bodied as equals. We provide exciting and life enhancing activities that have valuable benefits in fitness, coordination, balance, social interaction and self-awareness.

DSUK provide access to snowsport at all levels from first lessons with our ski schools, through to recreational skiing with the local groups, skiing in the mountains on activity weeks and competitions. The Access for All Race League, Development Team and the British Parasnowsport Team give completion opportunities to all levels of skiers from first time racers to the elite athlete. British Parasnowsport Team members represent Great Britain at all levels including the Winter Paralympics.

The future of DSUK depends on raising funds. By joining the Make a Million Friends Lottery you not only help us raise money but you also get chance to win a cash prize each month.

Open to members, non-members and supporters

The prize draw will take place on the 26th of every month
It costs £2.50 per month (or £30 per year)

£1.50 of each ticket supports DSUK with £1.00 going into the prize fund each month
The more players the bigger the potential winnings

The odds are better than the National Lottery and there is no need to buy a ticket each week
Complete your Direct Debit form and we will do the rest
